HURJURY - ESPIONAGE-R

The following is submitted for your information in connection with the affidavit of LOUIS J. LEISMAN dated March 31, 1952 in which he states on Page 2 that PETER MAVRELIS, proprietor of the Mayflower Restaurant, Aberdeen, Maryland, "gave the agents food and coffee and never charged them for it." It is felt that the following information should be brought to your attention since it has not been mentioned in writer's affidavit refuting LEISMAN's charges.

The only reason it was not mentioned was that it was agreed that it would lengthen the already long affidavit to cover a point of little consequence, and by such treatment perhaps give it an importance entirely out of proportion.

At no time did the writer or any of the agents accompany him in the interviews of PETER MAVRELIS, solicit any food or drink at the Mayflower Restaurant. On February 19, when the writer and SA WALTER L. LUTCH went to the Mayflower Restaurant for the purpose of interviewing Mr. MAVRELIS, they were under the impression that GERTRUDE LEISMAN was employed there as a waitress. When the agents were told that Mr. MAVRELIS would not be in the restaurant for 10 or 15 minutes, the agents ordered coffee so as to appear less conspicuous while waiting for him.

After the interview was completed, the agents took their check for 20 cents and went to the cashier to pay for this check. Mr. MAVRELIS followed them over to the cash register and told them not to pay for the coffee since it was "on the house." The agents thanked him for his hospitality but insisted on payment. Mr. MAVRELIS instructed the cashier not to take the agents' money. Rather than prolong this stalemate, the agents acceded to Mr. MAVRELIS' wishes and accepted the hospitality of the house.

On February 29, 1952 when the writer and SA BERNARD J. O'DONNELL, JR. again interviewed MAVRELIS, the interview took place in a booth in the Mayflower Restaurant. Mr. MAVRELIS refused to be seated until the agents ordered something and a waitress hovered over the table, waiting to take the order. The agents stated that they did not want anything but Mr. MAVRELIS was insistent that they be served; rather than cause another incident, the agents ordered a cup of tea.

It may be noted that at all times during the interviews with Mr. MAVRELIS, he was most friendly and cooperative and gave the writer the impression that he would be offended if his hospitality would not be accepted.

SA BERNARD J. O'DONNELL, JR., concurs with the above remarks of the writer.

MEMORANDUM

Re: JAHAM

On May 7, 1952, NELSON FRANK telephonically communicated with the writer. Among other things he stated that on May 6 he was having a general conversation with JAY LOVESTONE, during which time he mentioned CHAMBERS' forthcoming book, "THE WITNESS," and indicated that it was a rather well written piece of work. LOVESTONE stated that he too had heard of the book and was rather curious about the fact that CHAMBERS did not mention the incident wherein MIKE INTRATOR and CHAMBERS came to see LOVESTONE and at which time CHAMBERS indicated his thoughts of breaking with the Communist Party. LOVESTONE is supposed to have told both INTRATOR and CHAMBERS that if CHAMBERS actually did make a break with the Party he ought to hold a press conference in LOVESTONE's office and make considerable publicity about the fact that CHAMBERS had been in the underground and in the Party, and was actually breaking. LOVESTONE is alleged to have stated that in this way CHAMBERS would have received considerable publicity which would have prevented the Communists from attacking him physically or in the press. As LOVESTONE recalled he made an appointment to see INTRATOR and CHAMBERS at a subsequent time but neither CHAMBERS nor INTRATOR turned up and nothing further was heard, at least by LOVESTONE, of CHAMBERS' break with the Communist Party.

It may be of interest to note that NELSON FRANK and JAY LOVESTONE are apparently quite friendly and some consideration of this friendship should be given in connection with the investigation regarding JAY LOVESTONE.

MEMORANDUM

On May 13, 1952, Inspector Donald Parsons of the FBI Laboratory called and advised that he was desirous of ascertaining the date that appears on the affidavit of RAMOS FEEHAN. He also stated that in connection with their examination of the black stain inside the manila envelope that contained the Baltimore papers and other material, they had occasion to make an additional study of this stain with some new equipment. He stated that this experiment is not complete and probably will not be complete in time for them to submit an affidavit regarding their findings. He suggested that this particular item be left out of Agent Cadigan's affidavit, and the writer advised him that this would be all right and that the writer would contact the United States Attorney's staff and if there was any change in this he would be so advised.

MEMORANDUM

The United States Attorney's office was desirous of knowing what, if any, reason existed for JOSEPH SCHMITT of the Woodstock Typewriter Company declining to sign the affidavit which was attached to HISS' original moving papers.

The writer on May 15 talked to ASAC J. A. Roche of the Chicago Office and requested that the desired information be obtained. Subsequently Supervisor Bill Ryan of the Chicago Office advised that they had talked to SCHMITT and he advised that he had not made this affidavit but that it had been mailed to him from the HISS defense wherein they requested his signature to it. He said that he put it in an envelope, unsigned, and returned it to CHESTER LANE with the comment that he had given all of the information he possessed regarding this particular incident to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and advised that possibly the defense might want to contact the FBI for this particular information.

JAHAM

There are enclosed herewith three exhibits which were attached to the Notice of Motion for a New Trial filed by attorneys for the defendant ALGER HISS. These exhibits are described as follows:

Exhibit II-B - an unsigned affidavit of JOSEPH SCHMITT

Exhibit II-C - a letter from JOSEPH SCHMITT to Mr. DONALD DOUD dated December 6, 1951

Exhibit II-D - a memorandum prepared by CHESTER T. LANE re dating Woodstock No. 230099.

The United States Attorney desires that these exhibits be displayed by an agent to JOSEPH SCHMITT and that the latter be permitted to analyze them carefully.

With particular reference to Exhibit II-B, it is desired that SCHMITT give close scrutiny to this in an effort to determine if there are any substantial errors existing therein which are at difference with any opinions which he has previously expressed as to the time when 230099 was manufactured. It will be recalled that SCHMITT returned this affidavit to CHESTER LANE unsigned with comments to the effect that he had previously furnished all available information concerning this to the FBI. The United States Attorney specifically requested that SCHMITT be permitted to review this affidavit for any errors therein. It is also requested that he review Exhibit II-D, CHESTER LANE's memorandum, for any apparent errors existing therein.

It is desired that this matter be handled expeditiously and New York sutelled with a summary of any pertinent developments or telephonically advised, if necessary, if any substantial errors exist in these affidavits so that a supplemental affidavit can be drafted for execution by JOSEPH SCHMITT.

Re telephone call 5:25 PM, May 13, last, from SA JACK DANAHEY of your office to SAC ALDEN, requesting that an affidavit be submitted encompassing the information set forth in the report of SA WILLIAM C. PFEBIFFER, Baltimore, 3/10/52, page 30, last paragraph.

Enclosed herewith are the original executed affidavit received from CHARLES E. JACKSON, JR., 218 W. Madison Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, for transmittal to the USA, SDNY, and a carbon copy for your files. One copy has been retained by the Baltimore Division.

It is noted that referenced report sets out that Mr. JACKSON produced records which reflected that LLOYD CANTWELL retained apartment C from October 2, 1935 to June 27, 1936. The records actually refer only the dates on which CHAMBERS (CANTWELL) paid the rent for an apartment at 1617 Eutaw Place, Baltimore, Maryland, and they do not show the exact period of occupancy nor do they specify which apartment CHAMBERS occupied. However, it is Mr. JACKSON's belief that CHAMBERS did live in apartment C. Report follows.

Re: JAHAM

[REDACTED] of known reliability, advised the writer on 5/5/52 that she had a short conversation with ELEANORE KIRSTEIN recently during which KIRSTEIN remarked that her book would be published in the fall. Informant believes this book concerns the ALGER HISS case on which KIRSTEIN has been doing some research.

KIRSTEIN said that the FBI has been checking on her probably because she once was a representative of Tass. Informant stated that this was the first time she knew that KIRSTEIN had worked for Tass. KIRSTEIN indicated that the CP regarded her as a "police spy." Informant commented that this is probably because KIRSTEIN is Irish and an Irishman in the CP to be above suspicion has to be "twice as militant as anyone else." Informant advised that she has always considered KIRSTEIN "relatively unimportant in the Communist scheme of things."

MEMORANDUM

ASAC Bob Lally of the Baltimore Office called this morning and advised that CHAMBERS is quite concerned over the outcome of the motion for a new trial which was scheduled for June 2. Lally advised that CHAMBERS is leaving on May 31 to go to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he is to receive an honorary degree from some college. While in Milwaukee he will be stopping at the Plakenton Hotel. He expects to leave Milwaukee on or about June 3.

Lally was informed that the argument on the motion had been postponed from June 2 to June 4. Lally stated that he would appreciate it if we could telephonically advise him of the results of the argument on this motion so that he could inform CHAMBERS either at his farm in Westminster or at his hotel in Milwaukee. ASAC Lally was advised that he would be informed promptly of the results of the argument on this motion.

MEMORANDUM

On the afternoon of June 2, 1952, Inspector Hennrich of the Bureau called and stated that a news release in Washington had indicated that the argument on the HISS motion for a new trial had been put over to Thursday, June 5. Inspector Hennrich advised that there was some indication that the Government had asked for this continuance, and further related that the Director was anxious to know why this delay was requested.

The writer checked with HENRY HORN of the Chief Clerk's Office of the United States District Court and also with Judge GODDARD's law clerk, and both advised that the motion is definitely scheduled for 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 4.

Subsequently the writer telephonically advised Inspector Hennrich of the above, and stated that apparently there was some discrepancy at the time of the calendar call on the morning of June 2, but from checking with the Chief Clerk and with Judge Goddard's chambers arguments on the motion actually would be heard on June 4.

Inspector Hennrich was also advised that the continuance of this motion was not caused by either the Government or the defense, but apparently was set over until June 4 because of the pressure of other business on Judge Goddard's calendar.

Re: JAHAM

On June 17, 1952, the writer talked with RALPH TOLEDANO of Newsweek Magazine. He stated that he was at a cocktail party a few nights previous and while there met an attorney whose first name he believes is PHIL and whose last name is WITTENBERG. WITTENBERG at one time was associated with the law firm of Boudine and Wittenberg, and from 1925 to approximately 1932 this firm handled a good deal of the legal work for the Communist Party in New York City.

While WITTENBERG told TOLEDANO that he did not think much of the Government's answering papers in connection with the motion for a new trial, he felt that HISS was innocent and that the real story revolved about the homosexuality of WHITTAKER CHAMBERS.

Re: JAHAM

Recently the writer spoke with NELSON FRANK of the New York World-Telegram and Sun. FRANK stated that he had recently been at the Remington Rand plant at South Norwalk, Connecticut. While there he talked to MALCOLM ROBERT, who is the Division Superintendent of the Typewriter Division of this company. In the conversation the duplication of the HISS typewriter came up.

ROBERT, according to FRANK, has had a great deal of practical experience in the manufacture of typewriters. ROBERT told FRANK that it was impossible to duplicate all of the keys of one given typewriter, and felt that any expert who had any experience in the field would also so state.

This information is being made a matter of record with the possibility that some time in the future it may be necessary to contact experts outside of the Government in connection with this typewriter.

Re: JAHAM

At 3:08 p.m. on 7-23-52, Mr. Parsons of the Bureau telephoned and advised as follows:

The International Association for Identification (IAI) maintains a sub-committee on document identification of which Lt. STANLEY SMITH of the Pennsylvania State Police is chairman. This sub-committee has become greatly concerned over the article of TYTELL which appeared in True Magazine insofar as its probable effect on document identification is concerned.

According to Mr. Parsons, TYTELL is an associate member of the IAI and became associated with this organization on the claim that he is a document expert. The members of the IAI are up in arms in connection with his article and are desirous of having him excluded from the organization.

Lt. STANLEY SMITH had requested that the Bureau permit a representative of the FBI to attend a meeting of the IAI at which TYTELL would be present, and a discussion was to take place regarding the contents of TYTELL's article. The Bureau declined, saying that it would not dignify TYTELL by having one of its representatives present.

Mr. Parsons further advised that Lt. SMITH is presently on his way to New York and may contact this office in connection with TYTELL. He apparently intends seeing TYTELL and discussing his article with him. Mr. Parsons advised that we are not to furnish anything to Lt. SMITH which he cannot get from public sources and that we are not desirous of involving ourselves in the TYTELL-IAI controversy. He further wished this office to know that Lt. SMITH is not contacting the NYO at the behest of the Bureau, but on his own initiative.

JOWETT

On 9/29/52, NORA TOLEDANO called the writer. She stated she had just learned through a good source that a prominent English jurist, one IRVING JOWETT, had just completed a manuscript dealing with the HISS case. Her informant advised that JOWETT had taken the position in his book of condemning CHAMBERS and praising HISS.

Mrs. TOLEDANO advised that she understands that JOWETT was unable to get the book published in England because of the strict libel laws. JOWETT is supposed to be in New York City and a publishing company unknown to Mrs. TOLEDANO is presently reading the book.

She further informed that there are some rumors persisting that the HISS people, in view of the position taken by JOWETT, had been helpful in supplying JOWETT with trial transcripts, etc.

As the Bureau has previously been advised, there are indications that ALGER HISS, through his attorney, CHESTER IANE, was attempting to obtain the services of a publicity agent who would attempt to get as much favorable publicity for HISS as possible prior to the time he comes up for parole in October 1952. It is possible that this may be one of the mediums through which the HISS people are attempting to put HISS in as favorable light as possible in an effort to assist him in being released on parole.

Re: JAHAM

On 10/15/52, RALPH TOLEDANO advised the writer that he had some information in connection with the newspaper article appearing in that day's papers regarding a million dollar suit against WHITTAKER CHAMBERS and Random House, Inc.

TOLEDANO stated that he personally knows WILLIAM POGANY. In connection with the libel suit, TOLEDANO stated that about four months after CHAMBERS' book, "Witness" was published, someone brought to POGANY's attention the fact that his name was in the book. POGANY read that part of the book and went to see his lawyer, FRED W. WOLFE, of New York City. He indicated to WOLFE that his brother definitely was not the big Hungarian Communist CHAMBERS claimed he was. Thereafter WOLFE went to Random House and asked them to print a retraction. Random House refused but did agree to give POGANY a letter indicating they had made a mistake in using his name which, they stated, POGANY could show to any newspaper reporters he cared to.

Somehow or other the whole matter was dropped until WILLIAM A. HYMAN, an attorney at 111 Fulton Street, talked to POGANY and arranged to handle this possible libel action. POGANY, according to TOLEDANO, stated he never did request HYMAN to bring any action as he did not want to become embarrassed. However, HYMAN did proceed without POGANY's knowledge and did file a one million dollar libel suit.

Re: JAHAM

On 10/17/52, NELSON FRANK of the "World Telegram and Sun" telephonically communicated with the writer. He stated that earlier on this date he had a conversation with BLANCHE FINN, a researcher at Time Magazine. BLANCHE FINN is one of the people at Time who has always been very friendly with WHITTAKER CHAMBERS.

During the conversation, Miss FINN informed NELSON FRANK that Time Magazine, in its October 30th issue, was going to do a cover story on ADLAI STEVENSON. Among other things, they were going to point up the fact that although STEVENSON in his deposition for HISS in the latter's first trial indicated he had not seen HISS since about 1944, there was documentary proof that this was not true.

According to Miss FINN, Time Magazine has obtained documentary proof that in 1947 a series of lectures were being given at Northwestern University. At one of these lectures ALGER HISS was the principal speaker and, according to Miss FINN's information, STEVENSON was not only chairman of this particular meeting, but introduced HISS in rather glowing terms.

This information was relayed to Inspector Leo Loughlin at the Bureau on the evening of 10/17/52.

At 5:10 P.M. on 10/25/52 Mr. LOWELL LIMPUS, an editor of the New York Daily News, telephoned this office to advise that one of his researchers had called to his attention the fact that in the book "Seeds of Treason", there was a statement that ALGER HISS had employed or had caused to be employed DAVID ZABLADOWSKY by the Department of State. Mr. LIMPUS said that he thought this information should be called to the attention of this office and to the attention of Senator EASTLAND who is participating in the sessions of the HCUA in New York City.

It is noted that ZABLADOWSKY was named by Whittaker Chambers as a former Communist in the HCUA hearings currently being held in New York.

It is further noted that the facts of HISS' connection with ZABLADOWSKY were mentioned in the headline on page one of the Daily News edition of 10/26/52.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, New York

FROM : SA LAWRENCE H. BRACKEN

SUBJECT: JAHAM

DATE: 11/19/52

It will be recalled that in the memo of SA THOMAS G. SPENCER dated 9/30/52 in the above-captioned matter, information had been received that an individual by the name of JOWETT, a prominent English jurist, had completed a manuscript dealing with the HISS case. It was believed that JOWETT was taking the position wherein CHAMBERS was lying and HISS was in reality innocent. JOWETT was supposedly in NYC at this time endeavoring to get his book published. A search of the records of I&NS, NYC, under all possible spellings of the name JOWETT produced negative results.

On 10/14/52 the NYO came into possession of the publication entitled "Record", published by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, Volume 7, October, 1952 issue. This booklet contained a book review of WHITTAKER CHAMBERS' book, "Witness", and it was noted that the review was written by the Right Honorable Sir WILLIAM ALLEN JOWITT. The postscript to this review noted that JOWITT had completed a book which was to be published shortly in Great Britain. This book deals with the trial and conviction of ALGER HISS.

A review of the English "Who's Who" in the NY Public Library by the writer revealed the following information concerning JOWETT:

He was born 4/15/85 at Stevenage, England. He was educated at Marlboro and New College, Oxford, from which he received a B.A. degree. He has LL.D. degrees from the University of Columbia, the University of Toronto, and the University of Chicago. In 1913 he married LESLEY M'INTYRE. They have one child, a daughter. He was admitted to the Bar in 1909; served as Attorney General from 1929 to 1932; as Privy Councillor in 1931; in 1940 he became Solicitor General, and in 1942 he became Paymaster General. In 1943 he became Minister without Portfolio. From 1944 until May, 1945, he was Minister of National Insurance. In the national elections in 1945 which saw the CHURCHILL government replaced by the labor government under Prime Minister ATTLEE, JOWETT became Lord Chancellor of the Kingdom and served in this capacity until the labor government was replaced by CHURCHILL in 1951. He is presently a member of Parliament and resides at 6 Carlton House Terrace, London SW 1, England.

Rebulet 1/27/53, captioned as above.

On 2/18/53 Professor LOUIS BUDENZ was interviewed at his home by the writer. Regarding his knowledge of ALGER HISS, BUDENZ related that probably in the latter part of 1949 he was dining in the Longchamp's Restaurant on Madison Ave. near St. Patrick's Cathedral, NYC. Mrs. BUDENZ was present also at the time. During the course of the meal BUDENZ observed ALGER HISS sitting alone at a nearby table, drinking a cocktail. BUDENZ observed that he recognized this individual as HISS inasmuch as he, BUDENZ, had on earlier occasions been shown several photographs of this individual.

Up until this time BUDENZ did not realize that he had ever seen HISS in the flesh before. In the restaurant BUDENZ, while casually observing HISS, noted that the latter appeared to be waiting for someone and was becoming more and more impatient. As a symptom of his impatience HISS occasionally would shake or toss his head in what BUDENZ called a rather unusual manner. This mannerism suddenly recalled to BUDENZ the fact that he had met HISS at a meeting of the Communist underground in NYC probably about the time of the Stalin-Hitler Pact. BUDENZ stated that at that time HISS, as was the custom of the members of the underground was using another name which BUDENZ could not recall.

According to BUDENZ, the meeting occurred in a small apartment somewhere in the vicinity of Central Park. BUDENZ believes that he saw HISS at only one such meeting and had been unable to recall HISS simply by looking at photographs of him. BUDENZ noted that had he not observed the peculiar mannerism of HISS in the restaurant he probably never would have recalled seeing HISS.

MEMO

In retrospect, BUDENZ is unable exactly to date the time of the meeting but is rather sure that it occurred during the period of the Stalin-Hitler Pact in the early 1940's or shortly thereafter. BUDENZ also recalled that all the persons who attended the particular meeting at which he saw HISS were either members of the underground or member of the open Communist Party.

Prior to the incident in the N.Y. restaurant, BUDENZ stated that he had only heard from other members of the underground that HISS was a member of the CP who was connected with the underground group in Washington. BUDENZ concluded by stating that the foregoing constituted his entire knowledge of ALGER HISS.

LAURENCE HAYDEN DUGGAN

In regard to the above individual, BUDENZ also stated on 2/18/53 that he has no recollection of having stated to anyone that LAURENCE DUGGAN was a concealed Communist. BUDENZ said that DUGGAN could very easily have been such a concealed Communist but that he has no knowledge of this fact. BUDENZ stated that he knew DUGGAN was certainly cooperating with the Communists but he never heard anyone state in so many words that DUGGAN was a Communist. BUDENZ did say, however, that he was "morally certain" that DUGGAN was a Communist although he has no proof.

It is BUDENZ's recollection that in about 1943 JACOB GOLOS, during a conversation relating to the Communist underground in Washington, made some statement to the effect that "DUGGAN is working with us." At that time GOLOS was considering BUDENZ as a courier for travel between the N.Y. headquarters of the underground and various persons in the underground in Washington, D.C. It was during these conversations that the name of DUGGAN came up as a person who "was working with us."

BUDENZ stated that he never, to his recollection, met DUGGAN personally. BUDENZ reiterated that he is in no position to place DUGGAN in the concealed Communist category and to the best of his recollection has never so stated.

GLEN D. RANKIN, SA (134-47)

[REDACTED] advised SA GLEN D. RANKIN 5/12/53 of a conversation she recently had with a FRED COOK, former New York correspondent of the "London Evening Standard". Informant does not know COOK's present address and stated he is unemployed at this time. According to informant, COOK told her he is a good friend of ALGER HISS (NY file 65-14920) and believes he is innocent of all charges on which he was tried and convicted. COOK stated he frequently sees HISS' wife, PRISCILLA, and through her, COOK, passes messages to HISS.

COOK claims he has made arrangements to have his car in the vicinity of the prison the day HISS is released and at that time COOK with ALGER and PRISCILLA HISS, will immediately leave for a rest and vacation in some secluded area, possibly in the Rocky Mountains.

COOK supplied the above information to informant in confidence and told her he has said nothing about these plans to anyone else.
